IIIT-D/Office Orders/2015/16092

March 23, 2015

CIRCULAR NO: 10/2015

In continuation of the approval of Board in its 21st meeting dated 31st August 2012 vide item No 21.5.6 The Board in its 27th meeting held on 26th August 2014 vide item No 27.6.15 following amendments to Overseas Travel Exposure Guideline is made:

- Overseas visit will be allowed only if it does not affect the smooth functioning of the academic programs. The faculty member who avails of this is expected to make up most of the teaching commitment for this semester later, and serve the Institute for at least two years after availing this facility (failing which this semester will be considered as being on leave without pay and recoveries will be made accordingly).
- The faculty will be required to sign a bond for one year up to the value of benefits (USD 2,000/-), and for compensating for teaching loss for making up for teaching during this year. The faculty may be granted "special leave" for visiting overseas. During the period of overseas exposure the concerned faculty will continue to get salary increment at normal rate.

The Order shall become effective from 26.08.2014.

This issued with the approval of the competent authority
