

Indraprastha Institute of Information Technology-Delhi

Faculty Professional Development Fund (PDF) Guidelines

Credits in the PDF

The following may be credited to the Professional Development Fund (PDF) for a faculty or Research staff member:

For IRD Head:

1. Overheads from any type of projects amongst PI/Co-PI(s); for projects, 40% of the overhead is permitted.
2. Part of consultancy fees as per the recommendation of PI.
3. Part of the PI's "summer stipend" in an R&D project, as per the recommendation of the PI.
4. Part of remuneration of any CEP program, as per the recommendation of the faculty member.
5. Credit in IRD PDA from the part of the unspent balance, of a Conference/ Workshop / Summer School organized through the Institute only after the overhead (20% of total income) to the Institute is paid and the profit sharing (50:50 Institute & Organizers). Some types of unrestricted grants with no budgets, with permission of the Dean. Institute overhead may apply to such grants
6. Other money, which is a result of faculty member's efforts.
7. Contributions from Faculty Research Fellowship/Chair towards PDA.
8. Personal contribution from yearly PDA.

For Institute Head:

1. Credit to PDF based on yearly performance review details of which are available in the Faculty Handbook.
2. The unused portion of the telephone reimbursement allowance.
3. Part of income generated for the Institute through a CEP program in which the faculty member was involved can be credited in Institute PDA/IRD PDA/ Personal a/c. (as desired by Course Coordinator).
4. From other sources as approved by the Director from time to time.

Utilization of the funds in the Institute Head of PDF

1. Any professional domestic travel including attending conferences, participating in panels, attending meetings, giving seminars, etc.
2. For presenting a paper at an international conference appearing in Tier I or Tier II list of Institute approved conferences. The presentation could be oral or poster.
3. For presenting a paper at a reputed International Conference that is indexed (Scopus/ACM/IEEE or other major DLs) and has been running for over five years. Up to a third of PDA may be used for travel.
4. For attending high quality/reputed summer schools.
5. For longer term collaboration visits, once every three years, during vacations (monthly per-diem at half the rate)
6. The membership fee for Professional Societies.
7. Charges for filing Indian Patents.

8. Purchase of Professional Books, instructional video and consumables such as External Hard Drives/USB Storage Devices/DVD/CD-ROM/Storage Media, etc. Such items become the property of the faculty.
9. To cover local expenses of collaborators/researchers visiting IIITD.
10. Purchase of Cellular Phone, PDA, tablet, etc. of cost less than Rs. 40000. Replacement/up-gradation is allowed after N years, where $N = \text{mod}(\text{purchase price}/10000)$.
11. Up to Rs. 30,000 per fiscal year as research related contingency fund. Bills must be provided for all claims and Institute's guidelines for utilization must be followed
12. For giving a keynote in a standard, a long-running conference of repute.
13. A faculty member may use his/her PDA to be used by his/her PhD student or a faculty colleague as well.
14. For paying the charges of extra Pages for the Journals
15. For upgrading the equipment up to 10,000/-
16. For a year, stipend max. of Rs. 2 lakh. Stipend/one time payment to RA, Intern, Ph.D. students, etc.,(as per the board approved limits)The faculty will decide the amount and seek the approval of the DIRD,
17. For any other Professional activity approved by DIRD/Director.
18. Travel Expenses for Research.
19. Transcriptions and Translations, Dataset creation charges.
20. Participate and attend both international and national Conferences, Workshops, Summer and Winter Schools, Symposiums, Professional Meetings, and Research Collaborations. This is an addition to the Travel Budget provided to the faculty.
21. Any Conference and Publication Charges,
22. IEEE/ACM professional body membership for Ph.D. students of the advisor/related faculty,
23. Purchase of Laboratory Chemicals/Reagents,
24. Desktop/laptop/Server/Storage/Software, etc., for Research.

Utilization of the funds in the IRD head of PDF

The IRD head allows more freedom to a faculty member and allows following activity besides the one permitted under the institute head.

1. For presenting work to an international conference/workshop of repute subject to the approval of Director/ Dean (IRD).
2. For attending Tier I conferences as per the institute list.
3. For attending an international conference/workshop of repute subject to the approval of Director/ Dean (IRD).
4. International travel to participate in other events that help in building professional reputation – e.g. specialized invitation-only workshops, program committee meetings of highly rated conferences, to organize some important event.
5. For purchase of equipment or accessories for the lab or office.
6. Recruitment of project staff, PhD students beyond the period allowed under the Institute head.
7. To cover expenses for food etc. for professional meetings. Bills must be submitted for all such claims.
8. For research related contingency funds.
9. Meals/Refreshment claims to be limited up to Rs.1000/- per head from IRD PDA
10. Any other professional activity with the approval of the Dean (IRD).
11. Anything related to Research.
12. Transcriptions and Translations, Dataset creation charges.(Bill must be there)

13. Paying participants in field work (in addition to investigators, who can be paid from institute PDA also)(Bill must be there),
14. Workshop/CEP Summer school etc. publicity material,
15. Like earlier, even if the requirement of PI is not related to Research, DIRD is empowered to approve the same for other academic purposes.

IRD Endowment

At the time of relieving of faculty members, if some money is left in the PDA-IRD, it may be transferred to the following at the time of relieving (based on choice made by the relieving faculty).

1. IRD Endowment Fund (to be created) for Research Activity,
2. Scholarships for students in the Institute.
3. Laptop for EWS or other need students in the institute,
4. Student Welfare Fund,
5. Any other fund created by the Institute from time to time.

As a PDF is treated as a project, all purchases shall be made following the Purchase Rules for projects. All limits and processes from Institute's guidelines (Contingency, consumables, equipment and travel) should be synced with PDF guidelines. Prior approval from Dean is required to consume any amount from either of the heads.