The Board in its 24th meeting held on 20th August 2013 has approved the proposal for allowing some personal compensation from faculty awards which have no separate budget breakup.

It is proposed that for such awards or grants which allow use of funds as per Institute norms and have no budget distribution, the PI may be allowed to take personal compensation as per the limits for the projects, with the additional restriction that no more than 33% of the total funds in the award may be used towards this.

The Order shall become effective from 20.08.2013.

This issued with the approval of the competent authority
