ANNEXURE-I

EMERITUS PROFESSOR FELLOWSHIP SCHEME AT IIIT-DELHI

The Need

Retaining superannuating professors who are professionally active and contribute significantly to our teaching and research activities benefits the Institute. The Emeritus Professor Fellowship Scheme is designed to leverage the expertise and capabilities of these individuals in the years following their retirement. This scheme not only allows us to utilize the skills of highly qualified and capable individuals but also enhances the Institute by retaining experienced teachers and high-quality researchers. A faculty member awarded this fellowship will be called an “Emeritus Professor”.

Terms of Appointment and Compensation

Eligibility. A full Professor at IIIT-Delhi.

Appointment duration: The fellowship will be awarded for an initial term of three years after superannuation and is to be reviewed every year. This may be further extended for another term of two years depending upon the recommendation of the department and with the approval of the Dean of Faculty Affairs/ Director.

Each term of the fellowship will start on January 1/ July 1 of each year.

Responsibilities: An Emeritus Professor is required to undertake academic load which can be either:

one course per semester

OR

one course per year and additional engagement with the Institute (e.g. research, student guidance, etc) as agreed with the Head of the Department/ Dean of Faculty Affairs/ Director.

An Emeritus Professor will not have any administrative responsibility.

An Emeritus Professor may participate in projects as Co-PI, independently guide B.Tech. and M.Tech. thesis, IP/ IS/ UR and may also be a co-guide for Ph.D. students. He/ she cannot be a sole PI of any project or sole supervisor of a PhD student. In special cases, an Emeritus Professor may be the PI of a project from a private entity procured through his/ her personal efforts, and approved by the Dean of Faculty Affairs/ Director. An Emeritus Professor may not have an independent lab space and may share lab space with other faculty member(s).

Emeritus Fellowship awards will not be against sanctioned regular faculty positions.

An Emeritus Professor will be under the administrative control of the Head of the Department/ Dean of Faculty Affairs/ Director.

Each Emeritus Professor is expected to submit a report of his/ her achievements during the fellowship period, annually.

Compensation: The fellowship will carry an honorarium as follows:

One course per semester: Rs.1,00,000/- per month (annual increment of Rs.8,000/-)

One course per year: Rs.50,000/- per month (annual increment of Rs. 4,000/-) since the teaching load is half.

The amount is subject to revision by the Board from time to time.

Utilization of Professional Development Allowance: An Emeritus Professor may utilize his IRD-PDA which is accumulated during his service period. No further PDA will be accrued.

Office Space: An Emeritus Professor will be provided with an office space.

Housing: Accommodation will not be provided to an Emeritus Professor. However, after superannuation the allotted accommodation can be retained for a period of two months on License fee. Any stay beyond this, will attract a penal monthly fee equal to the limit of the amount for the leased accommodation provided by the Institute to an employee of the similar cadre. The limit of the amount for the leased accommodation outside the Campus will be the defined limit as approved by the Board of Governors (BoG) from time to time. Under no circumstances can an employee remain in the accommodation beyond 90 days of termination of allotment/ superannuation. This is as per the Faculty Housing Rules followed at the Institute.

Health Insurance: An Emeritus Professor may be included in the health insurance cover, on terms same as for regular staff/ faculty.

Campus Presence: An Emeritus Professor is expected to be present for classes, office hours, meetings, and any other assigned work, like a regular faculty. Any absence which hinders any of these activities must be done with the approval of the Head of the Department/ Dean of Faculty Affairs/ Director. If an Emeritus Professor takes up any temporary assignment during the non-teaching period, he/ she should inform the Institute about the dates of such appointment. No honorarium will be paid for this period by the Institute.

Leaving the Institute before the Contract Expires: If an Emeritus Professor wishes to leave the Institute before the end of the term period, he/ she is expected to ensure that the assigned responsibilities (particularly teaching) are completed before leaving, and that sufficient notice is given to the Head of the Department/ Dean of Faculty Affairs/ Director.

At the time of leaving: The Emeritus Professor is required to return back all Institute property, pay all dues, etc. and will be required to obtain no-dues as per the Institute's norms. If the Emeritus Professor was a Co-PI in some project, or was supported through a Fellowship, then suitable arrangements and notification should be made.

All employee in this category will be governed by the Act, Statutes, Ordinances, and Board decisions.

Appointment Method

The department will make a recommendation to the Dean of Faculty Affairs at least a semester before a faculty member is due to retire. This will provide sufficient time to a faculty member to plan the post-retirement activities.

The recommendations will be discussed in a committee comprising of the Director, Dean and Head of the Department.

Extension can be granted up to the maximum age of 70 years based on the departmental recommendation with the approval of the Dean of Faculty Affairs/ Director.
