No: 127/2024

Subject: Opening of Separate Bank Accounts for Sponsored Conferences

The Board of Governors, in its 66th meeting held on Sept 4, 2024, deliberated on the requirement of sponsoring agencies of opening separate bank accounts for sponsored conferences, in order to ensure transparency and the proper management of conference funds in compliance with their requirements.

The Board advised that if the conferences have a provision of specifying the name of authorized person for opening the bank account, an authorized signatory (Registrar/CoF) of the Institute may be mentioned.

However, if the sponsoring agency specifies opening the bank account with signatory as Conference Coordinator, the following payment criteria may be used to regulate the expenditure:

For payments up to Rs. 5 lakhs in each case

1st Authorization- Conference Coordinator; 2nd Authorization- Administrative Officer (IRD)

For payments above Rs.5 lakhs up to Rs. 50 lakhs in each case

1st Authorization: AO (IRD A/c) 2nd Authorization - Controller of Finance/Registrar

Payment of an amount above Rs 50 lakhs will require approval of the Director.

This issues with the approval of the Competent Authority.
